Disconnecting from work as appropriate is vital to a creating a supportive and productive workplace and to the mental and physical wellbeing of members.

A Member's ability to disconnect from work depends on the Board's or Service's operational needs, and the Board's legal responsibility for the provision of adequate and effective policing, as well as the duties and obligations of a Member's position, subject to the terms and conditions of the Member's employment with the Board, applicable collective agreements, and/or their minimum statutory entitlements under the Employment Standards Act, 2000 (the "ESA").
