

DURHAM REGIONAL POLICE SERVICES BOARD

September 8, 2022

The Durham Regional Police Services Board joins the global community in mourning the death of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II. The Police Services Board recognizes and honours her decades-long service as Queen of Canada and Head of State.

Queen Elizabeth II epitomized service to citizens and community and her legacy of dedication, civility and honorable duty will endure for generations to come. She will be remembered with the greatest of fondness, admiration and respect.

We express our profound and heartfelt condolences to the members of the Royal Family on their loss.
