Appointment of Mr. Peter Apostolopoulos to the Police Service Board

The Durham Regional Police Service Board is pleased to announce that Mr. Peter Apostolopoulos has been appointed to the Board by the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario for a three-year term.

"I am deeply honoured to have the opportunity to serve the community as a member of the Police Service Board," said Mr. Apostolopoulos. "I look forward to working with my Board colleagues, DRPS members and community partners to ensure that the DRPS continues to earn public trust and delivers excellent policing services across Durham Region."

"Mr. Apostolopoulos has significant business and Board governance experience that will strengthen the Police Service Board's capacity to represent the community's interests and make effective decisions," said Board Chair, Shaun Collier. "We look forward to his contributions which will support the Board in achieving its objectives for effective, accountable policing, leading to a safer community."

The Durham Regional Police Service Board is the civilian governing body of the Police Service. Its responsibilities include establishing objectives for policing in consultation with the Chief of the Police, setting policies for adequate and effective policing and the administration of the Police Service, and hiring and monitoring the performance of the Chief of Police. The Board consists of seven members, three appointed by the Province of Ontario and four chosen by Regional Council.
